

Learning Zone

Parkview Kids Care about Learning

Wooster City Schools knows that students learn in different ways. From inventorying multiple intelligences to providing early vocational experiences, Parkview provides students different locations, groups, and materials for learning based on individual need. This whiteboard space can be used for additional learning opportunities outside of the classroom.

Scan the QR code
below to learn more: